

RESTAURANT MOSAIC SCOOPS NUMEROUS COVETED AWARDS

Chantel Dartnall

Despite the Covid-19 pandemic and an all-round difficult year for restaurants, celebrated chef Chantel Dartnall and her restaurant, Restaurant Mosaic scooped numerous coveted awards during the past month.

Chantel was awarded Best Chef for 2020, and Restaurant Mosaic was recognised as the Best Restaurant of the year at the 2020 Hosco Luxe Restaurant Awards.

The Hosco Luxe Restaurant Awards celebrate the finest contributions to the South African restaurant sector. "This makes these awards especially meaningful to us. At Restaurant Mosaic, we pride ourselves on delivering unforgettable dining experiences that showcase South Africa's talent, passion and produce as truly world-class - these awards remind us that we are continually realising our dreams," Chantel says.

The restaurant's famed cellar also received the Wine List of the Year Award for 2020, and sommelier, Moses Magwaza, was acknowledged with the 2020 Wine Service Award.

Chantel has also been recognised amongst The Best Chef's Top 200 Chefs of 2020. And that is not the end of it. To top the above awards, Restaurant Mosaic once again received multiple accolades at the 2020 Haute Grandeur Global Awards, including:

- Best European Cuisine in Africa
- Best French Cuisine in Africa
- Best Hotel Restaurant in Africa
- Best Romantic Atmosphere in Africa

The Haute Grandeur Global Awards are focused on rewarding outstanding restaurant experiences around the world.

And then the restaurant also received The Restaurant Guru Awards for Best Restaurant, Best Services, and was named on the Restaurant Guru Recommended List for 2020! Restaurant Guru awards those restaurants which achieve the best visitor reviews and excellent marks for quality, service, and experience.

"2020 has been a year like no other, as the whole world has been forced to adjust their plans, hopes and dreams in light of the Covid 19 Pandemic. For us at Restaurant Mosaic, this excellent news is yet another bright reminder to keep hoping, and keep pressing on to greater things."

"To everyone near and far who voted for Restaurant Mosaic and me in this year's awards, we thank you from the bottom of our hearts. We so appreciate your support, and will continue to produce dining experiences that delight and inspire," says Chantel._
